Selected Media Quotes

"These songs glimmer like a glass of red wine in candlelight. They're dark, rich and whisperingly intimate. A virtuosic blend of moody Tori Amos piano work and Sarah McLachlan harmony bending, Waters' self-titled release is startling in its depth of texture and lyric...Waters has a firm grasp on the power in the dynamics of her playing and the close, secretive delivery of her vocals." – Performing Songwriter Magazine

"Come see her before other artists start being compared to her."

– MTV Online

"Her striking track ['Sweaters'] sounds like something we'll be hearing on the radio any second now." – Jane Magazine

"If the Lilith Fair still fared well, Beth Waters would most certainly be on the bill. With smart confessional lyrics, piano accompaniment, and a voice that hits heartbreaking falsettos, 'Spun Sugar' proves to be a stellar track."

– Independent Musician Magazine

"I found myself totally mesmerized." – Score! Music Magazine
